

Attracting Birds

Info Sheet

Birds are a great addition to any garden! They control unwanted plants (weeds) and pests by eating seeds and insects.

Want to attract birds to your Brevard County landscape? Birds enjoy fruit and seeds that are provided by trees, shrubs and flowers.

Here is a list of the plants which attract the largest variety of birds:

Aloe	Loquat
Alstroemeria	Magnolia
Amaryllis	Marigold
Aster	Morning Glory
Bachelor's Buttons	Mulberry
Beautyberry	Natal Plum
Bee Balm	Oak
Bird of Paradise	Persimmon
Blackberry	Pines
Blueberry	Red Cedar
Butterfly Weed	Red Maple
Cabbage Palm	Rose (some)
Camphor Tree	Seagrape
Cardinal Flower	Shining Sumac
Canna	Shrimp Plant
Date Palm	Southern Magnolia
Elaeagnus	Strawberry
Firethorn	Sunflower
Golden Dewdrop	Surinam Cherry
Grape	Sweetgum
Holly	Trumpet Vine
Honeysuckle	Wax Myrtle
Ligustrum	Yaupon Holly

The following plants are hummingbird attractors:

Acacia	Ginger Lily
Aloe	Glorybower
Alstroemeria	Hen & Chicks (several)
Bee Balm	Hibiscus
Bird of Paradise	Hollyhock
Bottlebrush	Impatiens
Butterfly Bush	Jatropha
Butterfly Weed	Justicia, yellow
Canna	Lavender
Cape Honeysuckle	Orchid Tree
Cardinal Flower	Pagoda Plant
Carolina Jasmine	Passionvine
Citrus	Pentas
Cleome	Phlox
Coral Tree	Porterweed
Delphinium	Powderpuff, Pink
Eucalyptus	Sage/Salvia (many)
Feijoa	Shrimp Plant, yellow
Firebush	Snapdragon
Firecracker Plant	Trailing Lantana
Florida Flame Vine	Trumpet Creeper
Fuchsia	Weigela
Geranium	Zinnia

